

1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be answered. This involves understanding the context and the specific requirements of the task.

Prevailing winds in Kansas are rannin this season?
The Weather Man: They're easterly.
But why do you ask?
The Visitor: I'm going' back the next week, an' I'd like to go to pointers as to where I'd be likely find the ole farmhouse. — Chiles Record.

The Lady Madelon.

She's learned in ophthalmometry, alert in a thermometry, is deft at ophthalmometry as wields a sutural knife.
She slouts a few diastolical, in sets as just corrigational, the assaile's intrapnetoseal's her keepest joy in life.
Her hobby's apneustic, stethoscopic, m croscopical and laryngoscopic, splanchnic and all that.

—Cincinnati Enquirer

A DECISION WITHOUT WORDS.

She—You have seen papa and he has am led to believe you can never mine.—Judge.

The New Rector.

A few ycs ago, on the eve of the dedication of a new rectory into an English parish, the verger went to one of the church wardens and said: "You please, sir, the new rectory is to be dedicated next Tuesday week, and I have come to ask you whether you will be able to be present."

"Certainly," said the church warden, "and I hope there will be an overflowing congregation."—Tid-Bits.

The Farmer's Little Joke.

"All our whole neighborhood has been stirred up," said the old subscriber.

"What we want is the news. What stirred it up?"

Strong Man.
Bacon—That man [black, who plays the heavy villain in the new drama] must have a wonderful constitution.
Egbert—Why?
Bacon—He smokes an entire box of cigarettes in the first act and doesn't die until the last act.—Youkers State man.

FRASES FOR HIS WIFE.

Mr. Benedict.—I met Mrs. Evertorke this morning. What a brilliant talker she is!

Mr. Evertorke.—Yes. I often think

"What a female barber she would have made!"—N. Y. Press.

Not Taken as a Compliment.
Cobbler—Van Gilder, the painter, has a narrow escape from being drowned recently, hasn't he?
Stone—Yes; and now he won't speak to me.
Cobbler—Why not?
Stone—I referred to him as a struggling artist.—Answers

How We Remembered.

Binks—I don't see how you can remember the birthdays of all the children.
Mrs. Binks—It's very easy. The first was born on August 17. I remember born July 30. On that day you gave me a fifty-cent book with my name and the date on the fly-leaf. The third was born May 6. On that day you got me at a millinery bill which had just been sent in, and it isn't paid yet.—N. Y. Weekly.

Genuine Handicapped.

"And you have written poetry," she exclaimed admiringly.

"Oh, yes," she answered in a tone of indifference.

"And it was accepted by the editor?"

"It was."

"Tell me; what do you think the most arduous thing about being ill-erary?"

"Finding somebody who will both

Left-Handed Praise.
An exchange reports another of those amiable criticisms that one hears sometimes between friends.

James has come into Brown's studio and is looking about the walls. Suddenly he pauses before a sketch.

"I say, Harry," he says, "where did you get that?"

"Why, I got it out of my head."

"Well, it's lucky for your head that you got it out."

~~~~~

Art Furniture.

"That stove," began the customer with deadly calmness, "you sold me last week as an 'art stove.' I believe!"

"Yes," admitted the dealer. "Isn't it?"

"It doesn't know any more about art."

"I say I doesn't know the first thing about art. I haves't tried it on painting yet, but it can't draw worth cent"—Indianapolis Journal.

Matrimonial.

"Do you remember that letter you wrote to me, before we were married in which you said you would even give up your chances of heaven for me?" remarked Mrs. Peck.

"Well," said Mr. N. Peck, after he had got hold of his hat and had the door open, "I guess I told the truth."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Villain Unmasked.

Mr. Snyder, a very inferior actor, so dared a breakfast at a restaurant where he had never been before. The

Not News.

Jimson (proudly)—I never deceive my wife—no, sir; I tell her everything.
Bilson—Yes; I knew that long ago.
"Wha—how?"
"She tells it all to my wife, and my wife tells it to me."—N. Y. Weekly.

The Bee

"By Industry we Thrive."

L. & N. TIME TABLE.

| MAIL                     | REVENUE    |
|--------------------------|------------|
| St. Louis to Memphis     | 10:00 a.m. |
| Memphis to St. Louis     | 10:00 a.m. |
| St. Louis to Nashville   | 10:00 a.m. |
| Nashville to St. Louis   | 10:00 a.m. |
| St. Louis to Knoxville   | 10:00 a.m. |
| Knoxville to St. Louis   | 10:00 a.m. |
| St. Louis to Chattanooga | 10:00 a.m. |
| Chattanooga to St. Louis | 10:00 a.m. |
| St. Louis to New Orleans | 10:00 a.m. |
| New Orleans to St. Louis | 10:00 a.m. |

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS AT NORTONVILLE.

C. O. & N. R. R.

GOING EAST.

Memphis to St. Louis

St. Louis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

Memphis to Nashville

Nashville to Knoxville

Knoxville to Chattanooga

Chattanooga to New Orleans

New Orleans to St. Louis

St. Louis to Memphis

A Ken Ken. Mrs. Lewis Graham (with her) who is at the residence of the late Mrs. Graham, "tened up" Saturday night, and during a "Ken Ken" performance, "playing music" with one of his windows, which greatly disturbed the tranquility of the vicinity. Leslie has submitted her case, and the usual contribution to the city's expenditure, and peace again reigns supreme.

Mrs. Emily Thomas, who resides at 1014 Washington, says she has been unable to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectively as Chamberlain's Pain-Expeller. She has used it several times with great success. For sale by the St. Bernard Drug Store, Lexington, Mo.; King, St. Charles; Ben T. Robinson, Morton, Mo. Cap.

Nathan Con-

science. It was confidence in the five-year-old Willie engaged by a little more than a week ago that caused him to leave his place a present given him by his father, Dr. W.

the street playing, about noon, when the saw him to know the time of day.

Willie displayed his watch and the engaged him to play for a while, and to get into his possession, which he did on the pretense that he wanted to see it, and that he wanted to see how he worked. Willie, who was very fond of the watch, willingly handed it over, and the negro, who lost no time in entering the house, and taking the watch, slipped under the door and was gone, leaving the watch in his hand. It was evidently a very good watch, and it was no use to him whereas he was then obtained.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City,

Mo., was hit by her doctor's bell. Constantly she was taken to the hospital, but two bottles of Dr. King's New

Discovery quickly cured her, and she was able to leave the hospital, and suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result every remedy, but when she bought one of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is a good medicine, and it is a good proof of the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. For sale by the St. Bernard Drug Store, Lexington,

Mo.; King, St. Charles; Ben T. Robinson,

Morton, Mo. Cap.

Wanted to Support

the Old Man.

The post office at

Harmony, Owen-

County, Ky., was threatened with abolition on account of the small amount of business done, but soon Postmaster Safford concluded to bring the office back to its former condition by disposing of stamps and by the sale of stamps at a discount. He was disposing of stamps at regular rates when he was taken ill by the doctor's bell. He was able to discharge every duty devolving upon him with the same fidelity.

Home's Cause.

We offer one Hundred dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. Hall, Catarrh Cure.

We have the advantage of knowing F. J.

Chase for the last fifteen years, and believe him perfectly honest. In all cases of Catarrh, and in all cases of catarrh, we have found it necessary to carry out any obligation made by him. We are, therefore, in a position to say that he is a man of honor.

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

Toledo, O. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

W. and T. R. R. Wholesale Druggists,

Wanted to Work. Frank Crowder, of Franklin and disorderly conduct, at St. Louis, Mo., was taken to the hospital, and during a "Ken Ken" performance, "playing music" with one of his windows, which greatly disturbed the tranquility of the vicinity. Leslie has submitted her case, and the usual contribution to the city's expenditure, and peace again reigns supreme.

Mrs. Emily Thomas, who resides at 1014 Washington, says she has been unable to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectively as Chamberlain's Pain-Expeller. She has used it several times with great success. For sale by the St. Bernard Drug Store, Lexington,

Mo.; King, St. Charles; Ben T. Robinson,

Morton, Mo. Cap.

Nathan Con-

science. It was confidence in the five-year-old Willie engaged by a little more than a week ago that caused him to leave his place a present given him by his father, Dr. W. the street playing, about noon, when the saw him to know the time of day. Willie displayed his watch and the engaged him to play for a while, and to get into his possession, which he did on the pretense that he wanted to see it, and that he wanted to see how he worked. Willie, who was very fond of the watch, willingly handed it over, and the negro, who lost no time in entering the house, and taking the watch, slipped under the door and was gone, leaving the watch in his hand. It was evidently a very good watch, and it was no use to him whereas he was then obtained.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City,

Mo., was hit by her doctor's bell. Constantly she was taken to the hospital,

but two bottles of Dr. King's New

Discovery quickly cured her, and she

was able to leave the hospital, and suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result every remedy, but when she bought one of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is a good medicine, and it is a good proof of the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. For sale by the St. Bernard

Drug Store, Lexington, Mo.; King, St.

Charles; Ben T. Robinson, Morton, Mo.

Cap.

Wanted to Support

the Old Man.

The post office at

Harmony, Owen-

County, Ky., was threatened with abolition on account of the small amount of business done, but soon Postmaster Safford concluded to bring the office back to its former condition by disposing of stamps and by the sale of stamps at a discount.

He was disposing of stamps at regular rates when he was taken ill by the doctor's bell. He was able to discharge every duty devolving upon him with the same fidelity.

Home's Cause.

We offer one Hundred

dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. Hall, Catarrh Cure.

We have the advantage of knowing F. J.

Chase for the last fifteen years, and

believe him perfectly honest. In all

cases of Catarrh, and in all cases of Building of the Ship. Judging from the large number gathered in Assembly hall last

Sunday night, we may infer that the ship is to be built in the vicinity of the Christian Endeavor.

There was but one expression as to the ship, and that was, "It is to be built in the vicinity of the Christian Endeavor." The earnestness of the children, the bright, quick responses to the questions, and the fact that all the children were present, showed the purpose to make the ship a reality.

The fact that the ship is to be built in the vicinity of the Christian

Endeavor, is a fact that is to be remembered. The fact that the ship is to be built in the vicinity of the Christian Endeavor, is a fact that is to be remembered. The fact that the ship is to be built in the vicinity of the Christian Endeavor, is a fact that is to be remembered. The fact that the ship is to be built in the vicinity of the Christian Endeavor, is a fact that is to be remembered.

The fact that the ship is to be

built in the vicinity of the Christian

Endeavor, is a fact that is to be remembered. The fact that the ship

is to be built in the vicinity of the

Christian Endeavor, is a fact that

is to be remembered. The fact that

the ship is to be built in the vicinity

of the Christian Endeavor, is a fact

that is to be remembered. The fact that the ship is to be built in the [illegible]